Each year, Di Filippo presents a different artist and topic in a blend of wine and art. For Novello 2009, we chose Massimiliano Bardi, contemporary of Roberto Di Filippo and fellow Umbrian, who presents his homeland to us.

Massimiliano Bardi

Florentine Massimiliano Bardi has always painted, and has devoted himself entirely to art for the past several years. His style is quite personal, elegant and slightly ironic, telling stories of everyday life in small Italian towns. He paints these villages by “caricaturing” all their typical characters such as bakers, mail carriers, mayors, housewives, firefighters, fruit vendors and... Police Officers. These have become the signature of his paintings, through the colors of the uniforms, folklore, history, and “Italian-ness,” unequaled by the various characters of our villages. Warm, intense, serene, fairy tale colors, and serene, happy compositions inspired by good feelings that are never banal, imbued with stories to tell. The artist paints with an elegant touch, refined and with great emotional strength. His national production includes Christmas greeting cards for the Arma dei Carabinieri, the “Natale d'autore LINDOR” products for LINDT, artist of reference for “Assaggi d'Arte Gradara” 2007, and Assisi Endurance 2008; his many personal and collective works include those for Varese, Todi, Campione d'Italia, Bolzano, Sirmione, Cortona, Firenze, Luino, Monterosso al Mare, Cervia, Perugia, and San Gimignano.
