

THE RIGHT BALANCE BETWEEN MAN, VINEYARD AND ANIMALS

There is the man who guides everything rediscovering tradition and true agricultural identity, with 4 hectares of vineyards managed in a natural balance between man, terrain and animals. The synergy between free range geese which control weeds and fertilize and the horses which perform the small amount of work required limiting the need for heavy machines. The quality of soil and grapes improves, reducing energy consumption by 40%.

